THE DAILY UNION BANNER.

VOL. 1. SALISBURY, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1865. NO. 143

JEFF. DAVIS AND C. C. CLAY.

A correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from Fortress Monroe, says:

Jeff. Davis shows pluck and lives hopefully. His chief torments now are boils, and his chief source of amusement reading "Bancroft's History of the United States." By the way, the whole fort library has lately been opened to him; so he has all the reading, and good matter, too, he chooses. He expects soon to be called to trial, but no notification of the fact has yet reached him, nor has there been any late correspondence with any of his counsel. He has a large, airy room, good attendance, a good fire, and, with his daily walks and privileges of reading and correspondence, and the excellent meals furnished him, fares more like a lord than a prisoner. There is now no guard stationed in his room as formerly.

Mr. Clay continues in the enjoyment of excellent health. He seems greatly at a loss to account for his prolonged imprisonment, and defies, I am told, the possibility of proving his complicity in the remotest degree with the assassination of President Lincoln. His anxiety for a speedy trial is as strong as ever.

As to the trial of Jeff. Davis, the Washington correspondent of the Tribune says:

Messrs. Speed, Rousseau, Evarts, and others, counsel for the Government, announced in a N. York paper as positively determined on, was true in August, but it is not true now. Public opinion has changed since then, and Government measures always follow public opinion. It is admitted as a fact, that any trial in a Southern State would be a farce.

It is equally a fact that the Southern States unanimously desire his pardon; that the majority of the Democratic party hold the same opinion, and now that the Radical wing of the Republican party have expressed the same wish it is believed it will be taken for granted that a majority of the nation are opposed to his punishment.

For Whom Do Fashionable Women Dress.

The idea that ladies who lavish enormous sums annually in personal decorations dress to fascinate their husbands, lovers, or man in the aggregate, is a vulgar error. A fashinable woman is not half as anxious to win the admiration of the men as to provoke the envy of her own sex. The truth is, that gentlemen, as a rule, know very little about the commercial value of female attire, and (except when they are called on to pay the bills) care less. An elegant and becoming toilet, however inexpensive, generally satisfies them. Not so our first family belles and dashing dowagers Cost is their standard of excellence in costume. And what consummate summary critics they are. No tradesman is a better judge of the articles in which he deals than the lady of fashion is of all the articles her sisters wear. With a single side long glance, rapid, keen and searching, she can "reckon up" the habiliments of a rival in the beau monde almost to a shilling. No pawn broker, however accustomed to guage the price of costly trumpery, could come nearer the mark. Imitation cashmers, simulated lace and false jewelry, however varisemblant, do not deceive her for an instant. She sees through the cheat as easily as a banker detects a forged bill, and sneers inwardly at the vain attempt to cope with her genuine extravagances. She triumphs in the reflection that all her splendors are sterling, and that her "set" sharpened as her elf, can distinguish between cheap fine ladyism and the ruinous grandeur it is intended to cope with, as well as she can. But mole-eyed man sees not the differences unless it is pointed out to him. Is it not obvious from these premises that the richly bedight goddesses of fashion's empyrean dress to provoke envy in each other rather than to command manly worship?

AN OUTSPOKEN JUDGE.

Judge Abell, of the First District Court of N. Orleans, evidently intends to resist the recent arbitrary order issued by Thos. W. Conway, of the Freedmen's Bureau, in reference to the sentence of the negro convicted for horse stealing in one of the parishes. The Judge says:

As a member of the judiciary, sworn to support the Constitution of the United States and of this State, I solemnly protest against the assumption of Mr. Conway in his interference with the judiciary of this State. I emphatically deny the right assumed. The Constitution of the U. States, and of this State, guarantee to every man the benefit of a trial by the due course of law, and the greatest tyrant who has lived for eight hundred years has never assumed, nor even threatened to take from the duly constituted Courts of the land their legitimate functions and jurisdiction.

But by my free consent, as a member of the judiciary, I will never surrender one particle of its independence; and I now solemnly appeal to the restorer of his contry and guardian of the Constitution, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, and the magnanimous people thereof, to save the judiciary of the country, and of this State, from being over-ridden and trodden under foot by courts and persons unknown to the Constitution and laws of the land.

TRUE POETS.

O Truth! in matchless majesty so grand invincible!
Come, help thy worshipper to point, in language from thy well,
Who are life's poets—not alone the Lords of pen and ink—
But those who higher than earth's dross have dared to act and think.

The Christian soldier, with no arms but zeal and faith and love,
Who for wild Afric's howling waste or Asia's banyan grove
Exchanges home and all its bliss, health, wealth and social pride,
That he may tell his fellow-men how Jesus Christ hath died;

The man who list'ning senates fires with eloquence that glows
Warm from the flames of his own soul, till each heart melts and flows
In streams of rapturous sympathy for the poor and the distressed—
Until they snatch away the bonds from the nation's slaves oppressed;

The monk who dares to leave his cell, with the Spirit's sword in hand,
And the torch of conscience raised full high o'er each benighted land—
Who, spite of dungeons, faggots, chains, and bulls of papal clime,
Proclaims, in all His purity, the One True Light of Time;

The bard who in the Avon's wave, as in a wizzard' glass,
Sees life's reflected littleness, and gilded crowns of brass,
And Falsehood's hideous form in silk, and Virtue clothed in rags,
And rouses all our love for Good, yet Vice a pris'ner drags.

O queenly Truth! thy laureates, thy epic princes these!
Their lives are poems, crowned all o'er with green and fadeless bays!
Hills, vales and seas forever chant in echoing chorus round
Their lays, incorporated with Eternity and Sound!

Female Society.

We endorse every word of John Randolph about ladies' society. Read what he says, young man, and act accordingly:—

You know my opinion of female society. Without it we should degenerate into brutes. This observation implies with ten fold force to young men and those who are in the prime of manhood. For, after a certain time of life, the literary man makes a shift (a poor one, I grant) to do without the society of ladies. To a young man nothing is as important as a spirit of devotion (next to his Creator) to some amiable woman, whose image may occupy his heart and guard it from polution which besets it on all sides.—A man ought to choose a wife as Mrs. Primrose did her wedding gown—for qualities that "wear well." One thing at least is true, that if matrimony has its cares, celibacy has no pleasures. A Newton or a more eminent scholar may find enjoyment in mere study; a man of literary taste can receive in books a powerful auxiliary; but a man must have a bosom friend and children around him to cherish and support the dreariness of of age.

The Old Capitol Prison is now in charge of Capt. G. W. Dutton, V. R. C., and at present contains but twenty prisoners—Wirz, Duncan, former commissary at Andersonville; Capt. Winder, also of Andersonville notoriety; Gen. Briscoe, Fuller, for fraud in soldiers' votes; Phelan, for forgery on national banks, and about a dozen citizens, for horse stealing, &c.

A CARD

To the Voters of Rowan County.

The undersigned offers himself as an independent candidate to represent you in the House of Commons at the ensuing Legislature. I deem it unnecessary to review my antecedents in connection with the late war, as they are too well known by you to require comments. If elected, I pledge myself to give to the administration of President Johnson the support it demands, and will use every exertion consistent with honor, to procure a speedy withdrawal of U. States troops from the State, and to facilitate reconstruction by the admission of North Carolina to a full participation in all the rights and powers of a State, under the Federal Constitution.

As regards the election of other offices, the statement of any preference I may feel for candidates for any other office, would seem like dictation on my part, and I shall refrain from doing so, as I think every man should vote according to the dictates of his judgment and conscience.

I am uncompromisingly opposed to negro suffrage, restricted or general, in any manner shape or form.

If elected, I shall vote for a Commissioner to recover property belonging to the State, improperly taken during the war, so as to lighten your taxes as much as possible. I shall also favor the election of Magistrates, Judges, and other officers, by the people—as I regard the people the best judges of those who would suit them. I shall also favor hard work, short speeches and short sessions of the Legislature to lessen our expenses. I am a plain man, sprung from the people—one of yourselves—my feelings and sympathies are with the people—I think I understand them, and if elected, believe I can reflect their wishes. THE UNION BANNER

SALISBURY, N. C., NOVEMBER 9, 1865

J. J. STEWART. EDITOR

ELECTIONS.

The Elections for Governor, Representatives to Congress, and Members of Assembly, Sheriffs and Clerks, will take place on Thursday, the 9th day of November, 1865.

National Union Andrew Johnson Ticket!

FOR GOVERNOR.

WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

FOR THE SENATE

FRANK E. SHOBER, Esq.

The Tug of War.

The great battle of this political campaign will be decided to-day—the radicals will be beaten, the Union cause will triumph. Radicalism must die—the death nell has been proclaimed upon the house tops and in every city throughout the State. There is no hope—"mene-mene tekle upharson" has been sounded throught the land and the broad seal, indicative of its eternal doom has been placed upon it.

After several days heavy skirmishing, we have come to this conclusion; the radicals are weak—a single line of battle is sufficient to route, defeat, and overwhelm them whith humiliation and chagrin. Our opinion is that Governor Holden will be elected. Dr. Sloan will go to Congress. F. E. Shober will go to the Senate, and Luke Blackmer and D. L. Bringle, Esq., will represent Rowan in the House of Commons in the next General Assembly of North Carolina.

Then fellow citizens dont throw away any votes. The gentlemen we have named above will be elected. The desultory firing that was kept up a portion of yesterday from the radical side amounted to nothing—the conservatives disperse them to-day.

OUR CITY.

To a citizen who has been North for several weeks, the city of Salisbury presents a pleasing appearance on his return. The new stores opened are doing a thriving business. The buildings on the burnt district are rapidly approaching completion. Every one seems to be at work, and all are progressing towards a settled basis of permanent prosperity. With the prosperity of Salisbury the influence and circulation of the Banner extends. It is eminently the journal of the people and we are gratified for the manner in which they come to its support. We would call attention to the number of new advertisements published to-day. They are all from the best houses in Baltimore, and as the merchants of that city are prepared to compete in the price and quality of goods with any New York or Philadelphia Houses, we are in hopes that they will lead the Southern trade. Already they have started a line of steamers to Liverpool, and a direct line to Savannah and the facilities of transportation to the other portion of the South are complete and effective.

PETERSBURG INDEX.

Our very talented contemporary, the Index, is so universally correct in all that goes to make up elegant English composition, that we fear to offer a good natured criticism, but presuming on his good temper we shall venture to do so.

"THE EMIGRANTS.—There was another arrival of emigrants by the City Point Railroad last evening—all Germans, healthy, sober looking people, whose appearance indicated familiarity with and willingness to work. They are seeking situations, and persons having work for them should apply at once to Messrs. Jones & Co., the agents on Bollingbrook st."

Index, Oct. 31st.

Has not our contemporary used the inappropriate word? Persons changing their abode are properly called "emigrants" in the country they leave but "immigrants" in the country to which they remove,—are we right?

Gen. Briscoe's sentence will be made as light as possible.—Ex. Paper.

We find the above going the rounds of the press without comment. We are at a loss to comprehend what is meant by "as mild as possible." He stood charged with an infamous crime, not only that, but Capt. Alberger as we understand swore that Briscoe said that he had or could so arrange it, as to cast the blame on innocent parties. A deliberate scheme is concocted, to rob the Government and arrest innocent parties as being guilty—the chief actor to prostitute his high official station in aid of this base device. It is one of those offiences which from its very nature pre supposes deliberation.

In this State it takes away the lex libera and subjects the offender to be publicly whipped But the sentence is to be as "mild as possible." In the name of society, we ask, why? The fact of his being a General, aggravates the offense in our opinion. Give him a trial, the benefit of any fair doubt; but if convicted, he ought to be punished with the severest penalty known to the code. What is public sentiment coming to when such cases as Ketchum's and Briscoe's excite sympathy?

Vote for Reconstruction.

Vote for reconstruction to-day and to a speedy return to the happiness and prosperity of 1860 by voting for Governor W. W. Holden and Dr. Wm. Sloan. With them comes Peace, Happiness and Prosperity, while the election of their opponents would usher us into a sea of troubles and difficulties.

GENERAL NEWS.

Gen. Carl Schurz is said to be in very bad odouer with the President of the United States, on account of his spending his time, while traveling South at the expense of the government, and on official business, in attempts to organize a Republican party South.

Charles Krone, a St. Louis actor lately went hunting in the woods near the city. He saw what he supposed to be a woodpecker in a tree, and fired at it, when to his horror, a wounded man fell heavily to the ground. It was William Newen, a German, who was picking wild grapes. The shot had penetrated his head and breast, inflicting wounds from which he died in a few hours. A coroner's jury acquitted Krone of criminal responsibility.

In Italy there is a fierce contest on foot between the press and the army. No fewer than one hundred challenges have been sent by as many officers to the editor of a popular newspaper, for daring to call in question the proceedings of one of their own body.

Chas. Funk, a German, was killed at Jewett City, Connecticut, lately by falling under a train, which he was attempting to board, while in motion. He was a conscripted into the Confederate army, deserted and enlisted in the Union army, and has been employed at Norwich.

The New York correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette says: The New York Hotel is crammed, and Mr. Cranston is reaping the reward of his manliness and liberal kindness during the past four years, although the crowds that rush to his house prevent him from doing justice either to himself or them.

A Counterfeiters den in New York was lately discovered at No. 5, Goerck St., and 111,000 in counterfeit currency seized.

Gen. Piere Soule of La. has been pardoned.

The receipts of cotton are fair at Savannah, but the market is dull and prices lower. Midling selling at 52 cents. Sea Island unchanged. Sales at 85c. a $1,25 Most of the sales were at $1 a $1.05.

One thousand and twenty millions of dollars have been paid the U. S. army during the war.

The Freedmen's Fair at Guion's Hotel, Raleigh, on the 28th, boke up in row.

It is rumored that the Secretary of the Navy has ordered all the iron clads to be put in the best possible trim.

A steamer on Lake Huron named the Mohawk was caught in a storm on Wednesday and was obliged to throw her deck load over-board. The loss amounted to over $50,000.

There was a large meeting of working men at Fanuel Hall, Boston, Wednesday night to help forward the movement for establishing the eight hour system of labor.

Governor Wells has organized four cavaly regiments of militia for service in Northern Louisiana, recently threatened with negro insurrection.—These regiments have been placed under command of two capable and experienced officers, Colonel Scott and Grayson, prominent in the late war, who are residents of the military districts of which they have charge. An order has also been issued returning to their owner firearms taken from them at the time of Federal occupation, and for which receipts were given by the Provost Marshall.—These timely and judicious measures of the Gov. will, no doubt, result in establishing subordination to authority and good order generally in the section of the State named.

A New Orleans paper says that General Beauregrad is about to be, if he has not already been appointed Superintendent of the New Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern railroad—a position in which his ability as one of the first engineers of the age will be of incalculable benefit to the road, to the city and to the States of Louisiana & Mississippi.

The drainage filth of London is estimated to be worth thirteen million and a half gold dollars.

The Earl of Strathmore had his life insured for a million dollars.

The London underground railroad carried 6,462,823 persons in six months.

Major Tew, of Atlanta, Georgia, was murdered near Marietta recently, it is supposed, by some negroes for the sake $12,000 he had about his person.

It is suggested that people who have safes should never place them so as to fall into the cellar in case of fire; and if put in a wooden building they should if possible, be placed where the wall could be cut through and an attempt made to secure them.

It is stated on good authority that the regular army will hereafter consist of 50,000 men. At least 300 men, mostly discharged soldiers of the volunteer army, are daily joining the regular army which will in a few months be increased to the maximum mentioned.

Ben, a negro hackman, in Nashville, the other day smashed the skull of a white man named Jos. Arica, stealing up behind him in a livery stable with a big hammer. He then robbed him of $1,100. Ben is in a fair way for the gallows.

The Count Lagrange settled $2,000 per year on his jocky for winning the Derby.

An Indiana female was fined one cent for cowhiding her defamer.

The Moniteur newspaper sold in Paris for one million of francs.

A Georgia exchange says that many of the leading Methodist clergymen of that State, in consequence of the hostility still manifested by the Northern churches of that denomination toward their brethren at the South, have made overtures to the united ecclesiastically with the Episcopalians.

A CARD FROM MR. MYERFIELD.

LOCAL.

Suicide.

We mentioned yesterday the fact of a citizen of this county having been found hanging to a tree near this city. The facts of the case are that on Monday morning Mr. Thos. Hyde proceeded to his barn apparently in good health and spirits. On arriving there he took a log chain, fastened it to a beam, tied the other end around his neck and leaped from the window of the barn. He had a fall of seven feet, and when discovered he was dead. The reason of this suicide seems to be clearly traced to religious excitement.

TO-DAY.

To-day the election will be held and we hope every vo er will proceed to the polls and cast their ballots for the men of their choice. We would like to see a full vote.

YESTERDAY.

Yesterday Dr. Ramsay was announced to address the citizens of Salisbury at the Court House. The Doctor however did not speak, much to the disappointment of the curious.

AFRAID TO LAUGH.

Ladies sometimes repress their laughter to avoid revealing the discoloration and imperfection of their teeth. Fair ones, we would advise you to try the Fragrant Sozodont. It will remove, at once, all impurities, arrest the progress of decay, and whiten such parts as have already became black by decay, and leave the breath as fragrant as a rose.

NEW YORK AND LYNCHBURG via
THE ORANGE AND ALEXANDRIA AND VIRGINIA CENTRAL RAILROADS.
411 MILES CONTINUOUS RAIL—NO STAGING—TRAINS RUN TO BALTIMORE AND OHIO DEPOT AT WASHINGTON CITY,

TWICE DAILY.

The Orange and Alexandria Railroad having been put in complete repair, are now running two trains daily between Washington City and Lynchburg, connecting with the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at Washington, the Virginia and Tennesse railroad at Lynchburg, and at Gordonsville with the Virginia Central railroad for Staunton and Richmond.

Passengers taking this line pass in full view of the various battle fields along the line of the Virginia Central Railroad, between Richmond and Gordonsville, and the famous battle fields of Manassas, Bristoe and Cedar Mountain, on the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, and may rely upon making close and regular connections with the lines indicated Elegant cars are run upon this line, and every accommodation furnished to make the passengers comfortable.

Through passengers arriving in Richmond by the Virginia Central, Richmond and Danville, and Richmond and Petersburg Railroads, will find Garbers & Co's omnibuses to transport them between depots. Passengers have ample time to dine and sup at Gordonsville, and breakfast and sup at Virginia Central depot.

Trains leave Richmond, daily, (except Sunday) at 7:15 a. m. and 7:15 p. m.; on Sundays, at 7:15 p m., only, making close and sure connections at Washington city with the Baltimore and Ohio railroad for the following points:
